Duel between Pickets.

A Washington correspondent of the Detroit Tribune tells the following yarn:

A good story is in circulation here, but which has not yet got into the papers. As it is too good to be lost I put it in shape to print, for the benefit of whom it may concern:

One of the Michiganders being on advance picket duty a few days ago, came in sight of a South Carolina rebel, also on similar duty, when the following dialogue and duel took place:

Michigan—"Hallo, South Carolina, how are you to-day?"

South Carolina—"Pretty well, thank you; how are all the Yankees?"

Michigan—"So, so. What's the news over in Dixie?"

South Carolina—"Nothing in particular, only we've got some rifles now that will outshoot your Yankee guns all hollow."

Michigan—"Don't believe the yarn. You Seceshers brag too much. Can't fool your 'Pap' on that trigger."

South Carolina—"Suppose, then, you and I just take a few private passes at each other to settle this little question. What say you?"

Michigan—"Agreed. Forty rods and three shots each."

The question then arose as to the preliminaries, etc., there being no parties present to act as seconds. These were, however, soon settled by South Carolina giving Michigan a gold dollar for the first three shots. The parties then took their positions, and South Carolina blazed away his three shots at Michigan, who stood erect and pointed out to South Carolina the direction each of his shots had taken. Michigan escaped unhurt, and now came his turn to fire. South Carolina, to his credit be it said, stood erect and received Michigan's first shot in the thigh, which brought him down flat upon the ground.

"Hallo, old fellow, none of that," said Michigan; "no dodging the question. Stand up like a man, will you? You owe me two more d—n good shots, and you must pay them, mind that, or no more bragging about chivalry."

But South Carolina, having one leg broken already by a shot from Michigan's unerring Minie musket, could not stand on both pegs of his chivalry, and therefore "squatted," and cheated our honest Michigander out of "two d—d good shots," and thus ended this funny impromptu duel.

SMOOTH-TONGUED, WRITING TRAITORS.—The St. Louis Democrat has some remarks on a particular cast of traitors with which that city is infested, which, like some almanacs, will answer well for other States. The Democrat says: "There are traitors, smooth-tongued, smiling, self-complacent traitors to their country, who appear to expect—forsooth!—that their country owes them protection. They talk of their "rights." If they have rights, these are such as the wild beast of the forest has, who lies in wait, or prowls for the lives and blood of men. They have a right not to be exterminated with unnecessary cruelties. Beyond this, we can conceive of no rights that a traitor has. But he is wont to expatiate upon his right of free speech, of a free press, of habeas corpus, and of protection in person and property. In all these, he demands that the 'Star Spangled Banner' shall secure him in order that he may safely and in comfort drag it down.

For many of these wretches we are sorry. It is lamentable that they should have been so reared, or subjected to such associations, or cursed with so weak and distorted minds as to be unable to comprehend the real nature of this rebellion, and the issue involved in the war, or even to perceive that they retain no more rights under the government than an ingrate son under the roof he is setting in flames!"

SENATOR BAKER TO HIS WIFE.—A San Francisco telegram to the Bee says:

Mrs. Baker received a letter last week, written by the General before he crossed the Potomac, in which he speaks of returning with her to Oregon in the Spring, when, he says, the war will have ended. It is reported that the biography of General Baker will soon be published in connection with some of his best speeches.

JUST LIKE HIM.—A few days ago President Lincoln was assured that Beauregard and his army would soon be in Washington. He calmly replied, "I wish they would come; it is so much easier to entertain our friends than to visit them."—Washington Republican.

In answer to the question sometimes asked as to the politics of George B. McClellan, Commander-in-Chief of the American Army, it should be stated that he was in the last campaign a devoted supporter of Stephen A. Douglas.

A dispatch from San Francisco of the 7th, says—"Officer Park is said to be dying—having been stabbed by a fellow named McGuire from Oregon. It is said that McGuire is under indictment for rape at Walla Walla."—He has been arrested.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN will be published this morning. It will contain the latest telegraphic news from the East and California and all the news published in the DAILY OREGONIAN and the most [illegible] information published [illegible] in the State. The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is greater than that published by any other journal in Oregon, and in the circular of [illegible] State [illegible] to make it the most reliable, more especially in regard to that which pertains to Oregon interests. It will be mailed to order for 12½ cents per copy, or $3 per annum, to any part of the United States or British Columbia.

HENRY L. PITTOCK.

Coast Defenses

The Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State, by direction of the President, has issued a circular to the Governors of the loyal States, inviting their attention to the subject of improving the sea-board and lake defenses of their States. He says that—this is not done from any prospect of disturbances from abroad, for, despite the ceaseless wily machinations of rebel agents, danger of such disturbances is now less serious than it has been at any previous period during the course of the present rebellion, but it is nevertheless necessary to take every precaution possible to avoid the evils of foreign war. He asks the Governors to submit the matter to the consideration of the respective legislatures, and says that any expenditures required for coast and harbor defenses made after conference and concurrence with the federal government, there is every reason to believe would be sanctioned by Congress. If these suggestions are adopted, and the desired appropriations are made, the President will direct the proper agents of the Federal government to confer with the respective Governors and to superintend, direct and conduct the prosecution of the system of defenses for each State.

The coast and harbors of Oregon are entirely defenceless. There is not a cannon for service on the whole Columbia river from its mouth to Vancouver. The Revenue Cutter, which might have been of some service, has been ordered off. A single contemptible rebel privateer might lay the whole country under contribution from the mouth of the river to this city.

The past administration and former members of Congress from this State seem to have most unaccountably neglected their duty in providing means for our defense. We are glad to see the present movement. The subject will be properly introduced at the next session of the Legislature,—when we hope to dispense with the services of a secession governor and when the Legislature will be of the Union stamp.

We should undoubtedly have fortresses to command the mouth of this river. Such should have been built and armed long ago.

During the last last administration, the object seemed to be to weaken instead of strengthening government defenses. That policy will now cease in regard to the loyal States.

The circular of the Secretary of State will be likely to go into the hands of Governor Whiteaker, and from thence probably be passed into the hands of his successor. We apprehend that he has not the mind to grasp the designs of the Secretary of State, even if he possessed the will to do it. This appointment of an open-mouthed secessionist to represent his State in the Senate of the United States—whose flag is the South Carolina flag—shows that we have little to expect from Gov. Whiteaker in the performance of patriotic duty.

The Richmond Enquirer says that supplies are being rapidly exhausted at the South. They have plenty of corn, cotton and tobacco, but the market is nearly bare of candles, oil, soap, bacon, refined sugars, salt, iron, shoes, clothing, and other necessary supplies, and thinks that the blockade should be raised immediately.

Thanksgiving

We think we [illegible] in saying that the public voice in this section of the State is in favor of observing Thursday, the 28th day of the present month, Nov[illegible] [illegible] thanksgiving [illegible] that they may [illegible] having a proper spirit we [illegible]

THE CLAY FAMILY.—Thomas H. Clay, of Kentucky, eldest son of Henry Clay, was lately in Washington. He was very cordially welcomed by the President and prominent citizens of the District. He expresses confidence in the ultimate success of the Union army, and believes Kentucky can never be forced [illegible]. About the time James B. Clay was seized and sent prisoner to Fort Lafayette, his neighbor, Henry Clay, Jr., son of Col. Henry Clay, who fell at Buena Vista, received and accepted an appointment on the staff of Gen. Thomas, and has entered the Federal service with ardor. He was a few years at West Point, and left that institution to attend the funeral of his grandfather. It is gratifying to state that James B. Clay is almost the only descendant of the Sage of Ashland who has proved recreant to the Union. A majority of the relatives of Vice President Breckinridge and of William Preston, late Minister to Spain, are also faithful to the Federal flag.

NEW ROUTE ACROSS THE SIERRAS.—The Placerville Democrat says that a route has been discovered for a railroad across the Sierras. It seems that a dark, deep fissure was found by an exploring company, which was overhung by steep, towering, beetling cliffs, sullen and time-worn. In a north-eastern direction from this fissure, and about one and a half miles distant, on the eastern side of the summit, is another chasm, equally as wonderful as the first. Between the two is a narrow ridge, which can be pierced by a tunnel. When this is done the question of passing the Sierra Nevadas by railroad will be solved; the line will be direct, saving a great distance, and avoiding a long route through a plateau of snow.

Eastern News

MARYSVILLE, (Ky.) November 6th.—A gentleman from Petersburg says General Nelson has taken possession of that place and had advanced six miles beyond, to [illegible] Station, and was still marching on. The pickets of the enemy were ten miles in advance, where the rebels, 3,000 strong, were expected to make a stand. Gen. Nelson expected to come up to them yesterday.

NEW YORK, November 5th.—A special to the New York Evening Post says that Richmond papers of Monday, just received here, make no mention of the landing of the Naval Expedition on the Southern coast. It is quite clear, however, from the tone of the Southern press, that the movement of the fleet has created intense alarm among the rebels. They are anxiously awaiting intelligence of the blow that is to be struck.

The Tribune's dispatch says all the Northern Governors have by letter or message responded to the recent circular of the Secretary of State, promising to see to the thorough fortification of our sea and lake ports.

Gen. McClellan issued an order to-day that the pass of Gen. Scott should be honored the same as though he were in command of the army.

Gen. Havelock, a brother of the late Sir Henry Havelock, arrived this morning to offer his services to our Government.

Col. Ward H. Lamon has raised his brigade. One regiment is composed of Virginians, one of Pennsylvanians, and the third almost entirely of Marylanders.

The New York Times' dispatch says from Halleck or Gen. S. C. Buell will be assigned to the command of the Western Department, in place of Gen. Fremont.

The News sheet has a statement from Annapolis that 11,000 troops are gathered there to be sent South as soon as the transports of the expedition return.

When Stanley goes to Cabinet I hope that they will pay him off in Southern bonds and kick him out of the house.

[The above is the first typographical and editorial effort of our devil. He says it didn't hurt him.]

GARIBALDI.—The Italian soldier, it is said, is about to proceed to Hungary. It is supposed the Hungarians are about to rise against the Austrians. Garibaldi thinks he can do most for Venetia by getting up a fire in the rear.

EXPECTED FLEET AT SAN FRANCISCO.—There are at present seventy-one vessels on their way to the port of San Francisco, forty-six of which are from New York, Boston and other Eastern ports, and twenty-five from foreign ports.

The Richmond Whig says there can be no lasting peace till the confederate legions bivouac on Boston Common.

CITY.

THE PILOT LAW CASE.—We have [illegible] decision of Judge Deady, of the United States District Court, delivered by him in the case of Charles Edwards vs. steamship Pacific. Mr. Edwards claimed pay for pilotage under a law of Oregon. The decision is of [illegible] length. Judge Deady is clear and explicit in regard to the paramount authority of the laws of Congress, passed under the provisions of the Constitution. He says:

"The law of Congress is paramount, and all State legislation which is inconsistent with its terms liberally and fairly construed, must yield to it. Nor is it true that there is any presumption in favor of the State law and against the law of Congress, which in doubtful cases would determine the question in favor of the State law. But on the contrary, where, as in this case, the power is primarily and inherently in Congress and is only allowed to the State by the sufferance of Congress, the presumption should be the other way. The wisdom of the law was a question for Congress and not for the Court or the State to determine."

The Court decided against the legality of Mr. Edwards' demand for pilotage.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Maria Zollinger vs. Stephen Zollinger—Petition for divorce. Divorce granted.

State of Oregon vs. Stansbury, County Treasurer, and his sureties, in official bond. On demurrer to complaint held by the Court that leave to bring the action should have been obtained from the Circuit Court, by the State, as often parties are required to do in similar cases.

The balance of the day was occupied in hearing motions and determining demurrers.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Present, Higgins, Hallock, Harbaugh, Hall, White, Masters and Scott; Higgins in the chair.

Petitions of M. Moore and Trainor & Martin to retail liquors, were read and referred to Committee on Health and Police.

Bills of J. McCullough, $14, P. Baker, $14, and of Remington and Clark, $16,66, were read and ordered paid.

Resolution to pay gas bills, $165, was read and adopted.

On motion to take up resolution to purchase one thousand one hundred feet of hose, was decided in the negative.

Resolution to pay Seymour & Joint $675, for four hundred and fifty feet of hose, was taken up and read.

White moved to adopt the same; Masters moved to refer the resolution to Committee on Fire and Water.

Hallock moved to lay the resolution on the table; carried.

The resolution to purchase one thousand one hundred feet of hose was taken up and read, and adopted.

We are pleased to understand that our late associate, Henry Miller, Esq., is appointed Recruiting Agent in this city, for the purpose of raising men for the Oregon Volunteer Cavalry Regiment. A notice on this subject will be found in our advertising columns. A capital opportunity is offered to young men to fill the ranks of this regiment.

Marshal Groons has appointed J. D. Mates as his Especial Deputy for the Willamette Theatre.

The stage had not arrived at five o'clock this morning.

☞ The attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen is respectfully solicited to the New Goods just received by the last steamer, embracing a full line of Ladies' Cloaks, Shawls, Bonnets, Rigolets, Opera Hoods, Scarfs, DeLaines, [illegible], Coburgs, Merinos, Solferino Plaids, Ducals, All-wool de Laines, Opera Flannels, Embroidered Madonnas, all wool Plaids, French Chintz, and new style Carpets, together with a full assortment of Broadway style of French Dress Frock Coats, Business Suits, Overcoats, Talmas, [illegible], Velvet Vests, Fancy Pants, Opera Hats and new style Scarfs. All the articles are guaranteed to be of the latest Paris and New York fashions, and can be seen at HARKERS', opposite Commercial Wharf.

The Salt Wonder of the Desert.—About one hundred and fifty miles from Virginia City are some of the most remarkable salt deposits in the world—not so clear and pure as the salt of Cracow, but susceptible of ready refinement, and promising to become of great value to the Territory. The salt is formed in fabulous quantities by evaporation—the waters rising from perpetual springs and overflowing the level surface adjacent. It is estimated that there are a thousand tons on the ground ready for sacking.

Irish Brigade.—The Boston Journal has a sensation advertisement of a recruiting station lately opened in that city to complete the Massachusetts Regiment for the Irish Brigade being raised by Col. T. F. Meagher, the Brigade to be commanded, as the advertisement states, by the Irish Hero, General James Shields. A Roman Catholic priest is to be appointed Chaplain.

The Victoria papers are pressing upon the attention of the British government the necessity of establishing a mint at that place. The Colonist says that a full million dollars in dust was brought to Victoria in the month of October.

Lieut. Ives of the regular army in California, has deserted—making his way East by the Overland route.

James B. Clay, "the unworthy son of a noble sire," who is a secessionist, was lately captured by a sixteen year old boy. "Clay was fully armed, but as he had no time to retreat in good order," he weakened.

Ohio.—The late election in this State went so overwhelmingly for the Union cause that it is needless to give the exact returns.

Ready for Battle.—The Ellsworth Zouave Regiment, or "Ellsworth's Avengers," now stationed at Albany, is full, numbering 1000 men. The regiment is composed of one man from each town and ward in the State.

The Way of the Secessionists is Hard.—The wealthy men of Norfolk and Richmond wear, it is said, coarse negro clothes to show examples of economy.

Money Matters in the East.—The Chicago Tribune of Oct. 10th says:

Money matters continue to move along smoothly. The bankers and brokers who have been doing business here for several years regard the times as excessively dull, for the reason that interest and exchange are so low.

Gen. Twiggs has resigned from ill health, and is succeeded by Mansfield Lovell.

Martin Van Buren is 79 years and is quite strong and active.

Of all the woes the first great cause

Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases, Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Face, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots [illegible] before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the [illegible] and Head, Female Irregularities [illegible]

[illegible]

But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, [illegible] the children that are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, [illegible] thousands through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

[illegible] all diseases of males and females, [illegible] fifteen years of practice, and most remarkable cures [illegible] to any part of the State of [illegible] Washington Territory by patients [illegible] by letter.

All [illegible] correspondence strictly confidential. [illegible] L. J. CZAPKAY Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] enough to be [illegible] relief of their [illegible] duty to thus publicly express [illegible] gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] Borne down by the [illegible] the vicious practices of [illegible] depressed in body and mind [illegible] the most trifling duty imposed [illegible] of life, I sought the advice of many [illegible] at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance, [illegible] after a few weeks, and in [illegible] treatment, I found, to my [illegible] that instead of relief, my symptoms became more [illegible] torture, and being told by [illegible] my disease being principally confined to the [illegible] would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to his directions and advice my head became clear, and he effected the constant pain in my back and [illegible] the weakness of my limbs, the nervous [illegible] body [illegible] the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of [illegible] the frightful [illegible] and at times [illegible] followed by involuntary discharges, have all [illegible] and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which I [illegible] contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty [illegible] this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, [illegible] recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that he [illegible] a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, [illegible]

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir:—I have [illegible] last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not [illegible] strength yet, but soon will with the appetite [illegible] It is just three weeks, as you may recollect, since I [illegible] your institute with my constitution, as I [illegible] entirely [illegible] I never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do [illegible] the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] nerves so that I would not get excited and [illegible] everything. Now that you know what I expected, judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms and the removal of those sores and [illegible] my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having all my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible] think myself entirely cured. If you think anything [illegible] benefited, you may put this letter in the [illegible] Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS [illegible]

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire [illegible] I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] mendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but of humanity also. About two years ago, I [illegible] causes unknown to me, was seized with a [illegible] which owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the [illegible] physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from [illegible] one who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state, and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his [illegible] of which however he at once undertook my [illegible] the blessing of God I was once more [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness [illegible] to myself and all afflicted, to make the case [illegible] order that those in need of medical advice may [illegible] one in whom every confidence can be placed.
